Sketches of Little LD NEW YORK by Q. J. M. J. M.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—There are two young men in New York who make their living in an odd way. They hire out as heroes for movie thrills. When the regular leading actor balks at circus stunts the director calls in Edward Gordon and John Austin, whose favorite outdoor sports is riding motorcycles over high cliffs and open draw bridges.

The thrill makers at one time followed the perilous occupation of ascending in balloons at country fairs. As their courage grew they came to New York and found a ready market for their nerve. Austin has descended the side of the huge Equitable building hand over hand on a rope. He also, while playing the part of an escaped convict, leaped from a ferryboat into the floating ice of the Hudson last winter.

Gordon and Austin are educated, steady and abstemious. They say that their temperaments demand thrills. Monotony is the bane of their existence and adventure is the refresh with which they flavor life.

The two-dollar movie has also arrived. The Knickerbocker theater, long known as the society theater because of its pretentious productions, has been secured by a syndicate that will put on straight two dollar movie shows and the audience will dress as they would for the opera.

The Kind Words Club has been organized. Anybody can join. Bishop Charles Williams, of Michigan, who is spending a month in New York, is sponsor and suggestor of the new organization. The club members are:

Another typical New York romance has just become public. It concerns the romantic transfer of Myrtle Higgins, a poor girl, from a hall room to the St. Regis bridal suite. In an incidental manner Miss Higgins met Col. Billy Rowe, Jr., well known about town. There was quite a difference in their ages, but Col. Rowe won her over. And so they were married.

MUSIC FOR SOLDIERS.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) PARIS, Aug. 6.—Specially constructed talking machines are now being manufactured by a Paris business house for use in the trenches. The reproduction is just sufficiently loud for listeners close to the machine. Several thousands of the machines have already been sent to the front.

BOOKS UPON THE DREADED AN OPERATION WAR ARE VERY More Than Anything NUMEROUS

There Are 4,518 Publications of That Nature, Says
Catalog.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) BERLIN, Aug. 6.—The third volume of the war catalog of the German Publishers Association has just appeared. It shows that the number of books and pamphlets published upon the war is constantly increasing. Volume I contained 1416 titles of war books; Volume II, 1471, while the last volume mentions 1651 new publications treating exclusively of war. Altogether that makes a library of 4518 volumes about the war up to May, this year.

Curiously enough the department of "Art and Belles Lettres" comes first with 1166 books. Apparently every artist and every novelist has hastened to record his impressions of this conflict. Politics and economics follow a close second, with 1013 books, almost every professor of either history or economics writing for the "true" and scientific grounds for the outbreak of the war from both a political and economic point of view. Religious and ethical dissertations upon the war, which were so frequent during the first few weeks, have lost their interest for the multitude. Nevertheless the reader of a

Tried Fruitola and Traxo and Has Never Since Been Troubled
With Gall-stones.

Mrs. Mary E. Franke, whose address is West Point, Nebr., Box 411, has written to the Pinus laboratories a very strong endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo. In her letter, Mrs. Franke says: "About ten years ago I was about to undergo an operation for gall-stones when I heard of your medicine. Dreading an operation above everything I determined to try Fruitola and Traxo and have never been troubled with gall-stones since."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, and one dose is usually sufficient to give ample evidence of its efficacy. It softens the congested masses, disintegrates the hardened particles that occasion so much suffering, and expels the accumulated waste to the intense relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruitola, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day in order to rebuild and restore the system that has been weakened and run down by constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

serious turn of mind can find 887 religious books and pamphlets which preach their own lessons about the great war. The law of war has been honored with 227 contributions, while 799 books contain the personal memoirs of dead or living participants in the great events of the first 300 days of fighting.

FEW AND SIMPLE Words Only Are Now Required in British Criminal Indictments.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, Aug. 6.—A bill passed by Parliament at the present session abolished the time-honored wordy indictment against prisoners, which in the form of a parchment scroll frequently twelve feet long, has for many generations been a feature of the British criminal courts. The bill requires that a prisoner shall be charged in few and simple words, and the charge must be written or printed on paper—not parchment—not longer than a foot square.

FIELD OF VICTORY

Desired as Her Burial Place by Wealthy French Woman.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) PARIS, Aug. 5.—The will of a wealthy woman resident of Marseilles, who died a few days ago, contains the following clause: "If I die before the end of hostilities, I ask that my body may be laid provisionally in the family vault, and that it shall eventually be interred in the field where the final decisive victory is gained. I leave the whole of my fortune to the town which bears the name of this victory."

GERMAN THEATERS Is Opened in Constantinople and German Operas Are Successfully Given.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 4.—A German theater has just been opened here, and bids fair to be as popular as any Turkish house. A cast of Turkish actors, under German leadership, is engaged in mastering and presenting classical German plays, as well as a number of comedies, in the Turkish language. Parts of "Faust," "Schiller's 'The Robbers,'" and "William Tell," as well as an excellent translation of Goethe's "Egmont," have been successfully given thus far. Heretofore the modern Turkish theaters have presented almost exclusively French drama and with small success. The great tide of pro-German feeling in Constantinople at present is materially aiding the new venture.

ARE DEPORTED.
ATHENS, Aug. 5.—The Turkish military authorities have ordered the deportation into the interior of all the women and children in the city of Avlailk, on the coast of Asia Minor. The number effected by the order is 2,000, many of them being of Greek nationality. Greece has protested against the measure.
